

July 2-16 Tax Protest Period Set

Monday, July 2, has been set for the opening of hearings on the equalization of property assessments throughout Los Angeles County, according to County Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

County Supervisors, according to Chace, will then sit as a Board of Equalization through July 16 to hear petitions from taxpayers who feel their property has been assessed at a higher figure than comparable properties.

Petitions from taxpayers who feel their property was discriminated against by the County Assessor, may be filed with the Board of Equalization between July 2-16.

"While the equalization of assessments on all Los Angeles County property at the present time is the responsibility of the Supervisors," Chace said, "Proposition 13 on the November General Election ballot, if approved by the voters, will give the job to appointive boards in 1963."

Under Proposition 13, each Supervisor will nominate five persons to serve on the appeals boards. The presiding judge of the Superior Court will draw names in groups of three, until five three-man boards have been created.

If the plan is approved by the electorate, the Supervisors plan, for the first time, to notify taxpayers whose assessments were increased, in advance of the equalization period.
